Fees

Quartet Rates

The Elegant Entertainment String Quartet bases its fees upon a number of variables – anticipated amount of music, total time at a site, special services, drive time, etc. Ask us for a quote, based on your needs.

Our standard contract stipulates:

- A $100 non-refundable deposit is expected at the time of booking an engagement, to secure the date.
- The full balance due is payable two weeks before the performance.

Other Ensembles

For most settings, we recommend the robust, full-voiced sound of the string quartet. Elegant Entertainment can provide a smaller group if that better meets the needs of your event. Note, however, the selections of music available for the smaller groups may be limited. Please call for a quote on rates for a trio, duet or soloist.

Travel

Elegant Entertainment enjoys widespread recognition as a performing group. Extended travel, however, will incur an extra fee for the additional time and auto expense involved.
